We Will Suppose

that you buy a player piano from a down town store, where the 6% interest is collected on your contract, and that the price agreed upon is $650.00.

Few purchasers realize at the time they buy that on the payments advertised by some Wabash Ave. stores a $650.00 instrument will cost them over $750.00.

In buying a piano or player from me, the price agreed is every dollar you have to pay, even if you take 30 months or 2½ years to pay.

Think it over and buy that piano or player piano from

The Man With a Hammer

Do you know him or them? for there are several if not many of "him." Every movement made for the betterment of the individual or the town gets his little rap. Every enterprise is discouraged by his cynical comments. The best he can do is "to damn with slight praise" the very movements that he is directly interested in. Speaking of any merchant, he volunteers to tell how he overcharges and profiteers: every official is a "grafter" and every minister a hypocrite. If he gets hold of a stranger he loads him with suspicion and false information of the town, its institution and its people. One in particular has been using his heavy hardware on the Times lately, and all because we compelled him to pay a long overdue bill. His malicious lies were handed back to him by the people he approached and he denied them. What can you do with a cur of that sort? It may be necessary some day to mention what we know about some of these individuals personally and publicly and if we do, the skinning process in use at the Stock Yards will be mild treatment in comparison.

Take your kodak finishing to DuVal Studio, 352 W. 63rd st.—adv.

Fake Collectors and Solicitors

Several nationally known organizations have found it necessary to publish warnings against unauthorized persons collecting sums of money in their names. Among whom are the Salvation Army and American Legion. There are others whose good names are also being used by "slickers" of both sexes to get money without labor, and rather than be thought uncharitable or "cheap" the average person will contribute without investigation. Some days ago two women became highly incense when asked for their authority to collect for a charitable institution, and it was proven afterwards that they were frauds. Every authorized person will show their credentials when asked, and it should be the rule to ask for them unless you know the solicitor personally. Another great "fake" is to solicit ads for some little known lodge or organization; another is "for a poor family in our neighborhood"; another is the never failing "wounded soldier trying to work his way to his old home," and the people fall for them to great amounts. Another game is for book agents or others who have articles for sale to say they were sent by certain people, a lie pure and simple, as may be shown by telephoning the party referred to. Far be it from us to prevent or hinder any worthy charity, but we caution the general public against being victimized by a bunch of lazy fakers and crooks.

Mrs. Agatha Gelis has moved from 224 63rd st. to 212 E. 54th st.

Wm. A. Johnston has moved from 556 61st st. to 5531 Wentworth ave.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cairns, 6447 Yale ave., are on their vacation at Waupaca, Wis.

Burnett Swift, 6800 Union ave., is spending a week with Peoria friends.

Miss Mae Logan of 6522 Harvard ave., has returned home from a three months' visit in New York.

Mrs. Anna Barker of 7530 Stewart ave. has been enjoying the past few days at Klinger Lake, Mich.

Mr. J. S. Harbison is spending a few days with his aunt, Mrs. A. H. LeMessurier, of the Tudor.

On Thursday evening, July 28th, a "penny social" will be given by George G. Meade Camp, Sons of Veterans, at G. A. R. hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rathje of 6522 Harvard ave. are the proud parents of a baby girl, born Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Pettit, Dorothy Lornette and John, of 10525 Prospect ave., are leaving tomorrow for Oval Lodge, at Round Lake.

Rev. Ben C. Crow of Roodhouse, Ill., is spending several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Pettet, 1733 100th pl.

Dr. Nora Fawcett, 259 64th st., announces her annual reception, to take place Wednesday, July 27th, from 2 p. m. until 10 p. m.

Sam Coston, the genial assistant manager of the Harvard theatre, is spending his vacation at Benton Harbor, Mich. We don't know the name of the lady, but will probably learn it in the announcements.

The extreme heat of the past few weeks has brought to the attention of many housewives the advantages of the Finish Family Work Department of the Brewster Laundry. Your washing ready for use. Phones Wentworth 273 and 3791.—adv.

M. D. Madigan tried to cross Marquette rd. without the formality of stopping on Stewart ave. and was struck by a car loaded with tourists. Both cars were badly wrecked and the driver of the tourist's car only slightly injured.

Albert Hisgen, who was a druggist at 69th st. and Wentworth ave. for many years, and who lived at 6701 Perry ave., was killed by an automobile last Wednesday. Funeral service was private at 63rd st. and Harvard ave., July 16th. Burial at Mt. Greenwood.

The new plate glass front has been placed in the White Front Grocery and Market, and the fancy tiled windows are stocked with very attractive edibles. This enterprising firm is now on the map and with their unusually favorable surroundings will merit a good trade.

Mrs. M. M. Hoey, 6601 Yale ave., has been appointed social chairman of the Catholic Woman's League, which has a membership of nine hundred. The many friends of Mrs. Hoey predict a brilliant social regime the coming season for the League under the capable management of Mrs. Hoey, whose very name spells success.

AND SAFETY. Our first mortgages upon improved and producing farms have never lost a penny of interest or principal to our hundreds of satisfied customers. They are secured by a first lien upon indestructable property—agricultural land which yields annual and successive harvests which always find a ready market. These securities are non-fluctuating—in which respect they differ from a bond or a stock investment which is always affected by market conditions. Every farm mortgage which we make remains continuously under our supervision until it is paid off in full. Interest and principal are collected and remitted to you without charge. Such an investment is as simple as a savings account and pays over twice as much.

In a generation we have built up a reputation for care and conservatism which has brought us customers from over 30 states. We will be glad to send you our booklet and list of desirable mortgages without obligation.

REVOLVER INVENTED BY BOY

Idea of Deadly Small Arm Was Born in the Brain of Fourteen-Year-Old Runaway.

The revolver, that until the invention of the automatic pistol, was the most deadly small arm known to man, was born of the brain of a fourteen-year-old boy, Samuel Colt. Colt ran away from school and shipped on board a merchant vessel bound for the East Indies. He had a good deal of idle time on his hands once the ship was well at sea, and a long period of calm weather followed its movements. He began to seek an outlet for his active imagination and mechanical urge. He attempted various things to aid sailing, but without any great success. He then took to planning a pistol that would shoot several times with a single load. He had only bits of wood and a jack knife to work with, but before the voyage was over he had cut out a model for a revolver very similar to the pattern still in use.

Once at home again, he went to work in his father's factory, but the revolver idea was still in his head, and he worked at it from time to time until he was twenty-one. At this point his experiments had so far advanced that he asked for and obtained patents in America and European countries. A stock company was organized, and from this humble start the great Colt arms factory was begun, and the revolver put on a market that soon carried it around the world.

TRAGEDY IN INCREASED GIRTH

Man May Smile at His Rotundity, but to Woman It Is a Matter of Terror.

A fat man is usually a jolly sort of an individual who accepts the world as the same sort of a joke as the world considers him. Girth may worry a man occasionally because it is an annoyance, but with the modern woman it verges upon tragedy. As physicians—if they would talk freely—can tell you, it is a worry to them that frequently leads to ruined health, insanity or the grave, the New York Sun says.

It is possible for a man to grow fat gracefully. At least he can subdue his habits, stop running for trains, give up his golf and spend most of his time in ponderous poses. His tailor can easily arrange his clothing into well known and accepted lines.

The case of the woman is different. Fashion binds her as with a chain. There are no stylish frocks for stout women. The fashion calls for slim figures and trim ankles. Waists and hips are taboo. There are no sleeves capable of concealing overfleshed arms. Man can adapt his clothes to his figure, but woman must adapt her figure to the clothes or else shamelessly admit that she cannot wear what is fashionable.

It was not always so. In another generation the stout woman had a well-defined place—the "dowager type," it was sometimes called. The woman who made the best biscuits and cooked the most savory chicken was always a round sort of person who never minded it when people came unexpectedly around at dinner time. She was the one children flocked to for sympathy and the one who seemed to make the world brighter wherever she went.

Jelly Plant.

Comparatively few people know, says the American Forestry Magazine, that we are getting jelly from plants. The Roselle plant has high commercial value in the Philippines, Hawaii and other Pacific islands. The plant is an annual and attains a height of seven feet. It is probably the only plant in cultivation in which the part utilized for food is the calyx which has excellent qualities for the manufacture of jelly and chilled products.

Her Description.

A bright ten-year-old girl, whose father was addicted to amateur photography, attended a trial at court the other day for the first time. This was her account of the judge's charge: "The judge made a long speech to the jury of 12 men, and then sent them off into a little dark room to develop."

Birds That Burrow.

Persons are not accustomed to think of birds as burrowing animals, but the puffin answers to that description. It is a chunky little fowl, less than a foot high, with a large and powerful beak. For a home it scratches a hole in the ground sometimes as much as four feet deep. To capture a puffin one must go digging. It is rather a job; and, inasmuch as the bird bites and claws fiercely, one is likely to suffer in the process. Thus the creature has maintained its numbers on many a lonely rockery, where other species of wild fowl have been killed off and exterminated.

President Zachary Taylor.

Zachary Taylor is one of the least known of our presidents. He held office only 16 months, but in that time he displayed such courage and strength of character as to endear himself to the people. He came to the office practically unknown and unknowing. His victories in the Mexican war had made him famous, but he was not known to the politicians, nor did he know any of them. He had been called "Old Rough and Ready," but he was not such a blustering, uncouth man as people had thought.

Cement Must Be Heated.

It is often convenient to have a cement that will resist considerable temperatures. Here is the recipe for a good heat-withstanding cement: Take fifty parts of sulphur, one part of resin and one part of tallow. Take these ingredients together and add fine powdered glass to form a paste. This cement must be heated before being used.

Dreaming of Putty.

To dream of putty is a sign of poverty; puttying up holes foretells losses—the larger the hole the more extensive the loss. If you are putting glass into a window with putty it foretells that you will soon move into a meaner place than you now occupy.

HALSTED AND WEST

All West of Halsted St. 55th to 75th Sts.

NEWS

Mrs. John Stone of 6347 Sangamon st. left Tuesday for Fairmount, Ind., on a business trip.

See new laundry prices on page 7. Modern Laundry, corner 58th and Halsted sts.—adv.

Mrs. Francis B. O'Gallagher, 5532 S. Racine ave., has returned from a six weeks' visit in St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. M. Harkins and her daughters, Helen and Jean, are visiting her sister in Lincoln, Neb.

When you are in the vicinity of 63rd and Halsted sts., use the free garage provided by the Englewood Business Men's Association.

Keep cool—don't worry, and read our adv. on page 7. Modern Laundry, 58th and Halsted sts. Two phones, Wentworth 987 & 988.—ad.

Fred Wilson is spending the rest of the month at his mother's home in Los Angeles, Calif., and having a fine time.

The popular luncheons and cafeteria meals at Quinn's, 6319 Halsted st., are very popular and just the thing for these warmer days.—adv.

You will find some nice summer reading at both the Ogden Park and Sherman Park libraries. It is all free and open for you.

There is surely work for the coroner in the speeding automobiles are doing on Loomis blvd. and 63rd st.

The fire department is being called upon to extinguish bonfires on the prairies daily. Some people will be calling upon them to sprinkle their lawns.

Edward Cupp, of 7241 Winchester ave., has returned from St. Bernard's hospital where he successfully underwent a serious surgical operation.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Business Men's Association went to over $1,000 expense in building a well protected outside garage for the free use of the public in the space under the elevated road, east of 63rd court, very few are using it, and continue to block up Halsted and 63rd sts. by parking their cars there without any protection. Why?

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blake of Akron, Ohio, toured overland to Chicago this week and were the guests of their cousins, Mrs. E. Montgomery and family of 6039 Honore st. They left Wednesday for Colfax, Ia., for a short visit and will return, bringing with them Mr. Blake's parents, who will visit the Montgomerys for an indefinite time.

Send us your local news; we will gladly publish it.

Miss Agnes Paulson has entirely recovered from the operation she underwent some months ago and is back in her old position with Wilson's.

It appears that the opening of Union ave. from 63rd st. north has lost all interest and the committee has abandoned it. It is badly needed just the same.

Miss Elsa Eggers of 6408 Halsted st. returned Monday from an extended trip through the west, including the mountains of Colorado, the Yellowstone Park and all the popular resorts and sight attractions. The trip was beneficial to Miss Eggers and she is thinking of joining the heavyweight class.

H. C. Carlson of Englewood, now a student at the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, has closed his first year as pastor of the Swedish Baptist church of Chicago Heights. He will continue in this capacity during the coming year. Mr. Carlson is one of a group of thirty-two institute students who have charges in Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan and Indiana.

Harmony Drug Shop Reduces Prices

A sweeping reduction in prices on many of the articles handled by the Harmony Drug Co., 6317 S. Halsted st., has just recently been made. Ice cream sodas, so popular at this season, have also been reduced as have all sundaes. The former are now only 11c; the latter 15c.

The Harmony Drug Shop is one of the really live business concerns of Englewood.

Ogden Park Activities

Water Carnival

A water carnival will be held in the swimming pool of Ogden Park on Thursday evening, July 28th. Everybody is invited to come and enjoy the fun. There will be novelty races and stunts of every sort. A special feature of the evening will be an exhibition of fancy and high diving by Mr. Peter Vuzick.

Girls interested in swimming should register now for the swimming meet to be held on July 30th at Sherman Park. Medals will be given for those winning first, second and third places. See the instructor or director. Boys and men will have an opportunity of competing in a meet on Aug. 1st. There will be separate events for juniors and seniors. Register now with the instructor.

Playground Ball

Teams are being organized in four weights in playground ball by the new instructor in the men's gymnasium, Mr. Spade. There are practice games every day and Ogden Park ought to make place. If you are interested come over, register and get into the game.

Horseshoes

The new horseshoe pits are so popular that it will be necessary to put in additional equipment. There are both juniors and seniors practicing every day for the tournament that will be held the end of this month. Commissioner Albert Mohr is offering a trophy for the winning team of the south park tournament which begins July 29th.

Tennis

Entries are now being taken at Ogden Park for the south park tennis tournaments. There will be a large senior representation through the Ogden Park Tennis Club. A junior tournament for both girls and boys is an added feature of the competition this year. Boys seventeen and under, girls sixteen and under, are classified as juniors.

Sail-boats and Motor-boats

Boys who have home-made sailboats or motor-boats should meet at the pond at the south end of the lagoon on Monday evenings for preliminary races and try-outs. A great many interesting boats have already been brought over. Some of the boats are being sought by men who are interested in this form of sport. Come and get ideas on novel boat building.

Call "1313" When You Want Fire or Police

If your house catches fire tonight and you wake up suddenly and call "Main O" for the fireman—

Or if a burglar gets into your house and you call Main 13 for the police before he fires at you—the joke's on you. There isn't any Main O or Main 13 any more. The new number to call the police is Police 1313, and when you want a fireman in a hurry call Fire 1313, even if you are superstitious about two 13s and a fire.

The new directory of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company, which will be distributed today, contains an announcement of the changes.

Appreciation of the Potato.

In this country the chief and practically only interest in the potato today is as a vegetable for the table. We are greatly surpassed in this use by Europe, and Germany in particular. In that land the average annual per capita consumption was seven bushels in normal times, while our own was two and a half. The laborers of eastern Germany ate 17 bushels per annum. The other European countries are, as a rule, far above us and the diet of, nearly an Irishman is said to be potatoes and spring water—for breakfast, dinner and supper. In addition to this direct consumption uses of the potato heretofore unknown to Uncle Sam are for flour starch, dextrine, glucose and alcohol

Arctic Light.

At noon of December 21, the shortest and darkest day of the year, we could easily detect a faint glow of light in the south. The true darkness of night is a result of the complete disappearance of all traces of twilight, which occurs when the sun reaches a point of 18 degrees below the horizon. Our latitude was 78 degrees 20 minutes, therefore the sun at this time was only about 12 degrees below the horizon.—From "Four Years in the White North," by Donald B McMillan.

Concerning Baldness.

A majority of men who have amounted to anything have gone bald. To go bald before amounting to anything is the lot of millions. Among those millions are many who feel that the first kingdom of the world would be compensation for loss of hair, even if the perquisites of a king did not include an allowance for a court wigmaker. Even without a crown as a consolation, there is a certain solace in not having to wonder whether your scalplock is standing perpendicularly when the occasion calls for solemnity.—Exchange.

Safeguarding the Miner.

To protect the miner against his ancient enemy, inflammable gas a mining engineer has improved the standard type of miner's lamp. He has added a device which causes the lamp to emit a loud singing note as soon as the atmosphere becomes charged with inflammable gas.

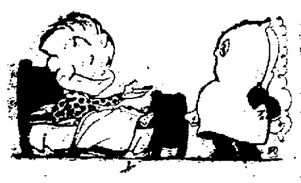
This ghost was a 1921 model



LAST MONTH, on a bet.
WITH THE boys up home.
I SPENT a night.
ALONE IN the old.
HAUNTED HOUSE.
AND WHEN I heard.
MOANS AND groans.
I SAID "The wind."
AND TRIED to sleep.
I HEARD rappings.
AND SAID "Rats."
AND ROLLED over.
THEN I heard steps.
AND IN the light.
OF A dying moon.
A WHITE spook rose.
I WASN'T scared—much.
BUT DIDN'T feel like.
STARTING ANYTHING.
BUT THEN I caught.
JUST A faint whiff.
OF A familiar.
AND DELICIOUS smell.
WHICH TIPPED me off.
SO I gave the ghost.
THE HORSE laugh.
AND SAID "Ed.
YOU FAT guys.
MAKE BUM ghosts.
BUT BEFORE you fade.
LEAVE WITH me one.
OF YOUR cigarettes.
THEY SATISFY."

THAT spicy, delicious aroma of fine tobaccos, both Turkish and Domestic, makes you almost hungry for the "satisfy-smoke." And there isn't a ghost of a chance you'll ever find its equal anywhere—for the Chesterfield blend is an exclusive blend. It can't be copied.

Permanent protection with Flex-a-Tiles

When you beautify your home with Flex-a-Tiles you insure yourself for years against all weather. You buy a durable, attractive, fire-resisting roof of felt and asphalt surfaced with slate, (shingles or rolls).

You free yourself from roof leaks, roof patching and roof maintenance for a long time.

You buy the product of over half a century of felt and roofing manufacturing experience.

QUALITY ALWAYS MAINTAINED

The quality of Flex-a-Tile Housetops must always be right.

The well-known Richardson felt from our own mills is saturated and coated with Flex-a-Tile natural asphalt scientifically processed in our refineries, and then the slate chips from our own quarries are rolled into the hot asphalt. This really enamels the surface with a natural colored slate.

Delicate instruments test the felt and asphalt; insure proper saturation; gauge the thickness; keep the weight to standard. And skilled workmen see to it that Flex-a-Tile quality does not vary.

ASK YOUR DEALER

to show you Flex-a-Tiles, in the natural slate green (or red if you prefer). See how uniform are the strength, thickness and color. Feel the smooth texture.

To dealers and home-owners: Come to any Flex-a-Tile mill and see how these housetops are made. We will be glad to show you through.

Flex-a-Tile Style 4 Slabs are four shingles in one; look exactly like individual shingles; self-spacing; easy to lay; beautiful.

Flex-a-Tile Asphalt Shingles are of the highest quality known to the roofing industry; uniform in size and color; beautiful and durable.

Flex-a-Tile Roll Shingles The best low-cost slate surfaced roofing; shingle effect is hot pressed right into the roll; looks exactly like individual shingles.

FLEX-A-TILE HOUSE TOPS Put On By Experts

The best roofing materials, laid by expert mechanics, is the service you will get when you select us for that housetop job. We have put on thousands of roofs (right over the old singles) in Englewood and the other southwestern suburbs. There are hundreds of samples of our work in your suburb. Ask your neighbor about us. Let us show you the best roof for your house based upon beauty, durability and economy. Our estimate involves no obligation. A letter or phone call will put you in touch with this service.

WANTED TO "GO IT ALONE"

Many Years Ago Missouri Declared Her Ambition to Become an Independent Republic.

Missouri once had intention of setting up as an independent republic all by herself. The Session acts, state of Missouri, 1838-1839, contain a memorial to the congress of the United States relative to the Santa Fe trade. It tells of an expedition of traders to Santa Fe in 1812 from St. Louis, though it is not specifically stated that they went over the Santa Fe trail.

The early Session acts of the Missouri legislature, starting in 1824, contain many interesting resolutions and memorials to congress on all manner of political and historical subjects. Incidentally the Missouri constitution of 1820 starts with the preamble that the citizens of the state agree to form and establish a free and independent republic by the name of the state of Missouri.

Missouri was one of the pivotal states in the history of this country. It was made such in the ancient fight in congress over the slavery question, which took up the admission of free and slave states as considered the balance thereof in congress. Missouri was also a pivotal state in yet another and larger sense—she was the jumping-off place for that wild and unknown country called the Wild West—the land west of the Missouri river. She made the midway point between the frontiersmen of Kentucky and those of the great plains, occupying a generation of history herself as a frontier commonwealth.

How Physicians Get Rich.

Jones is no more of a hypochondriac than other people, but he was heard talking to himself as follows: "Here I am eating my usual diet of fried food, canned meats, doughnuts, pie, wine, tea and coffee. It makes me sore to even think of wholesome foods like bran gems, eggs and milk. My stomach must be in a frightful condition; I'll go and see a doctor."

Later at the doctor's office he explained: "Doctor, although I feel A No. 1 my diet has been such that I feel sure it must have injured my digestion. Please examine me thoroughly and then tell me if you honestly think I am in need of the services of the profession which affords you a livelihood."

Which Is the Highest Mountain?

It is generally thought Mount Everest, with its 29,000 feet, is the world's highest peak, but some authorities assert that Teram Kangri, Kara Korams, Cashmere, has an altitude of nearly 30,000 feet.

Mrs. Elizabeth Munns, 1734 W. 103rd st., fell asleep on Saturday evening after a lingering illness. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon and body laid to rest in Mt. Greenwood cemetery. Mrs. Munns spent a good portion of her life on the Ridge and enjoyed a large number of friends. Four children survive her: Mrs. Mable Balder, Mrs. Ethel Turbush, of Milwaukee, Wis., Elmer and Harry.

The Appian Way.

The Appian way is the oldest and most famous of the Roman military roads. It was commenced by Appius Claudius Caecus, while censor in 312 B. C., and originally extended from the Porta Capena at Rome to Capua, a distance of 120 miles. In 30 B. C. the Appian way was continued to Brundisium, 320 miles from Rome. By means of its branches it connected Rome with all southern Italy. During the rule of Pope Pius IX (1846-1878) a part of this road extending about eleven miles out of Rome, was laid bare. It is remarkable for its pavement, which consists of large hexagonal blocks of basalt; but more especially for the ruins of the once magnificent tombs that line its side. The central part of the roadway, 16 feet wide, was designed for the passage of infantry, while the two side passages, each also 16 feet wide, were used for horsemen and vehicles. The Romans called the Appian way Regina Viarum (Queen of Roads).

The Savior in Profane History.

Among the historical references to Jesus Christ which are undisputed is that made by Tacitus, the Roman historian, who on speaking of the Christians said, "The originator of that name had been executed in the reign of Tiberius by order of the administrator, Pontius Pilate." This may be found in the Annals of Tereval. Reference to Christ is also made in the "Antiquities of Josephus," a Jewish historian, who was contemporary with Christ, but this passage is declared by some to be a forgery.

Cultivate the Memory.

Back of the idea of cultivating a memory is the keener edge it puts on the brain generally, which is the making of the more attractive person. Is there anything duller than a woman who is just too lazy minded to try to remember names and places and has to refer constantly to a third person for aid in telling an incident?—Exchange.

What Pewter Is.

Pewter is an alloy of tin and usually antimony, copper and bismuth for the best qualities of pewter, and lead for the inferior kinds. The tin always preponderates, and the proportion is largest in the best pewter. One hundred parts of tin to eight of antimony, four of copper and one of bismuth are given as the proportions of good ware.

Ancient Feminine Splendor.

For extravagance the modern American woman is an amateur in comparison with her ancient sister. In the Philadelphia museum six sheets of gold so thin that it was pliable as cloth show perforations at top and bottom. These are 16 by 20 inches in size, and were probably used as ruffles on the gown of a fashionable Inca princess. Then she could have had her choice of any one of the eight golden breastplates in the collection and one of the many golden crowns, a pair of the large fan-shaped filigree earrings, and the girdle, three feet long and seven inches wide, made up of 138 gold bars, each four inches long.

A necklace is formed of a string of 41 golden bells. There is a heavy ring for her nose and another for her lips, and broad arm bands, cuffs, bracelets and rings, and, as a final touch, a La Tosca cane topped with a golden monkey, wearing a hat and sitting in a high-backed chair.

The Way of Jayhawkers.

"Wilder's Annals of Kansas" gives this history of the word: "One autumn morning in this year (1856) Pat Devlin, a Free State Irishman, rode into Osawatomie on a horse heavily laden with many kinds of goods. 'Have you been foraging, Pat?' 'Yes, I've been jayhawking. In Ireland we have a bird we call the jayhawk; it worries its prey before devouring it; and jayhawking is a good name for the business I've been in.' This is the only known origin of the word. Colonel Jennison, early in the war (between the pro-slavery and free state forces) called himself and his soldiers jayhawkers, and the name soon came to be applied to all Kansans. Others attribute the word to Col. Charles R. Jennison, one of the Free State leaders, claiming that he "coined" it. "Jayhawking" was the term used to describe the depredations of the Kansans and they were called "Jayhawkers," as the term "Border Ruffians" was applied to the Missouri pro-slavery men.

Sharing Your Books.

The world is full of shut-ins, and there are those who are starving for books and papers, but how many of us make any effort to search them out?

A clever article on books which I lately read annoyed me by explaining how stupid is the custom of borrowing books, and how vastly more desirable it is for each man to own his own. I decided that the writer was a rich man (although my better judgment should tell me that writers seldom are rich), and I decided also that he was missing a lot of good things if he neither lends nor borrows books. I believe that a book is about the pleasantest thing there is to share. It produces such a bond of sympathy if it is enjoyed by a friend, and it provides at once something worth while to talk about.

And people do return books, especially if you put your name and "please return" inside and remember where your books are visiting.—Ella Wister Haines in Christian Herald.

Incredibly Silly Order.

Army orders regarding mustaches recall the fact that the Bank of England once issued an order forbidding clerks to wear mustaches during business hours! This remarkable order afforded the public so much amusement that it was soon canceled.

Raleigh's Great Work.

H. G. Wells wasn't the first to write a world history of his own conception. Sir Walter Raleigh antedated him by several hundred years. Raleigh's "History of the World" was a voluminous and painstaking work, showing evidences of profound scholarship and research. It was composed while he was a prisoner in the Tower of London, and it was one of the marvels of the time that a man, under such circumstances, and so far removed from sources of research, could have been able to undertake and carry through such a task.

Wedding Ring Is Changed.

The wedding ring was not always plain, as we see it today. It was frequently highly ornamented and wrought with various designs. But as other rings began to be worn the wedding ring was made conspicuously plain. The practice, however, was long in vogue of inscribing appropriate mottoes on rings. The ring may be said to be symbolic. It is of gold and typifies purity and refinement, whereas its rotundity signifies "the round flowing of mutual love and hearty affection."

Never the Same Again.

Friendship is a vase which, when it is flawed by heat or violence, or accident, may as well be broken at once; it can never be trusted after. The more graceful and ornamental it was, the more clearly do we discern the hopelessness of restoring it to its former state. Coarse stones, if they be fractured, may be cemented again; precious ones, never.—Walter S. Landon.

"Vacation Bible School"

The Daily Vacation Bible school of the Normal Park Baptist church, corner of 70th st. and Stewart ave., closes its sessions this week. Sunday morning next, July 24th, at 10:45, in connection with the regular morning service, the Annual Model Session and Exhibit of Work will be held.

The children will be on the platform as they were last year. The congregation will see exactly what they have been doing mornings at school, and will have an opportunity to inspect the beautiful arts and crafts work which they have completed.

We believe that in this school where the children have worshipped, studied, worked and played together, under the guidance of Christian men and women, a permanent contribution of great value has been made to their lives. Fine ability and devotion has been shown by the directors and teachers. Their's has been a labor of love, freely given without financial remuneration. And often the rendering of this service has called for a genuine sacrificial spirit.

Hamilton Park Branch Library

We have received another set of new books that everyone is anxious to read. There is a duplicate of most of them in the rental collection, which may be rented at the rate of five cents for the first three days and two cents for each day after. Those of our patrons who are particularly desirous of reading the very latest books have found our rental collection a great convenience, for it gives us an additional copy and therefore a greater chance of getting to more people. For a nominal charge of seven, nine or eleven cents you can enjoy the latest book with the encouraging thought that you are helping pay for a book to be added to the library's permanent collection. Two of these books can be drawn at a time. You may also reserve the rental books and we will notify you when it comes in.

The list of new books follows:

Aikman, Zell; Atherton, Sisters-in-Law; Black, The Seventh Angel; Buckrose, The Girl in the Fancy Dress; Cabell, Figures of Earth; Cohen, Six Seconds of Darkness; Buck, the Roof-Tree; Canfield, The Brimming Cup; Blasco, Ibanez, The Mayflower; Dodge, Tawi Tawi; Fletcher, The Orange-Yellow Diamond; Footner, The Owl Taxi; Hurst, Star-Dust; Locke, The Mountebank; McKenna, The Sixth Sense; Marshall, The Hall and the Grange; Merwin, Red and Gold; Onions, A Case in Camera; Philipotts, The Grey Room; Porter, Sister Sue; Oyen, Twisted Trails; Raine, Gunsight Pass; Sinclair, Cow Country; Stacpoole, Satan; Wallace, Seed of the Sun; Young, The Tragic Bride; Lansing's Peace Negotiations.

The library is open from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and from 1 p. m. to 9 p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Wedding Ring Finger.

Whatever the fashion may be about wedding rings the Episcopal Book of Common Prayer says: "The priest, taking the ring shall deliver it to the man to put on the fourth finger of the woman's left hand."

The Office Boy's Trouble.

The office boy had been sitting for hours at a typewriter, gazing vacantly into distance, and the force was becoming worried. "He's sick," suggested the kindly, old, gray-haired bookkeeper, but the blonde stenographer insisted there must have been some tragedy at home. The suspense ended when the lad suddenly turned to the fat claim clerk and inquired: "Say, Mr. Jones, how do you spell Thelma?"

Hamilton Park Branch Library

We have received a shipment of new books which may help solve the problem of what to do with the long hot days. There are copies of these in both the seven day and rental collection. Those in the rental may be rented at the rate of five cents for the first three days and two cents a day thereafter.

Buckrose, House With the Golden Windows; Comstock, Shield of Silence; Dawston, Kingdom 'Round the Corner; Dennury, Half Loaves; Fletcher, Chestermarke Instinct; Haldeman, Dust; Kaye-Smith, Green Apple Harvest; Livingston, Custard Cup; Merrick, Chair on the Boulevard; Mulder, Sand Doctor; Mundy, Guns of the Gods; Mulford, Bar 20—three; Ogden, Flockmaster of Poison Creek; Ostrander, Crimson Blotter; Railey, Show Down; Reeve, Film Mystery; Scarborough, Famous Modern Ghost Stories; Scarborough, Humorous Ghost Stories; Tarkington, Alice Adams; Ward (Sax Rogmer), Bat Wing; Sandburg, Smoke and Steel; Conrad, Notes on Life and Letters; Vance, Red Masquerade; Johnston, Man Who Did the Right Thing.

The library is open from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and from 1 p. m. to 9 p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. on Saturdays.

Why Some Papers Are Stopped

Some people will move from an address, give no notice to the postal authorities and all mail coming to that address is returned to sender marked "Moved—left no address." Naturally when we are so notified we must stop sending the paper. Some months or more afterwards they will write us wanting to know why we have not sent the paper, that it is paid for, etc. We are pretty wise but can't send a paper when we have no address to send it to. Sometimes the husband will order the paper sent to his business address and the good wifey wants to know why we have stopped it. In one case we had a young son who, getting married, ordered his mother's paper sent to his new address, which of course stopped it at the old address. Others leave the city and stay only a day or two in any one address and wonder why the paper does not reach them when the fact is they are not at the new address long enough to receive it. Others take a very unfair advantage in our reliance upon their honesty by ordering the paper sent to them at some resort or in the country and do not notify us of the change when they leave there, hence the paper is continued until the year is up, and then of course they refuse to pay for the paper. If you change your address simply notify the letter carrier, post office or our office of the change, and there will be no trouble about getting the paper, but we are poor guessers as to where or when people move.

With spring at our doors we think of our gardens, and here is a list of some of the best books on Fabre, Field, Forest and Farm, vegetable and flower gardening that we are sure you will find helpful: things interesting to young nature-lovers, including some matters of moment to gardeners and fruit-growers; Saint Maur, A Self-supporting home; Saint Maur, Making the Home Profitable; Fletcher, How to Make a Fruit Garden, a practical and suggestive manual for the home garden; Powell, The Orchard and the Fruit Garden; Bailey, The Principles of Vegetable Gardening; Bolte, Back Yard Farmer; Croy, One Thousand Hints on Vegetable Gardening, Putnam's Vegetable Book; Davis, Garden Book, a popular treatise on growing vegetables under both home and market conditions; French, How to Grow Vegetable and Garden Herbs; Fullerton, How to Make a Vegetable Garden, a Practical and Suggestive Manual for the Home Garden; Ely, A Woman's Hardy Garden; Henderson, Gardening for Pleasure, a guide to the amateur in the fruit, vegetable and flower garden, with full directions for the green house, conservatory and window garden; Miller, ed., How to Make a Flower Garden, a manual of practical information and suggestions; Barron, Lawns and How to Make Them, together with the proper keeping of putting greens; Parsons, How to Plan the Home Grounds; Adams, Flower Gardening; Barnes, The Suburban Garden Guide; Doubleday, The American Flower Garden, including planting lists by Leonard Barron; Bailey, Garden Making, suggestions for the utilization of the home grounds; Bailey, Manual of Gardening, a practical guide to the making of its garden; Skinner, Little Gardens, how to beautify city yards and small country spaces; Ivins, Garden Crops, Production and Preservation; Kruhm, The Home Vegetable Garden; Morrison, How to Make the Garden Pay; Rexford, The Home Garden, a book home grounds and the growing of flowers, fruits and vegetables for home use; Dean, The Livable House, growing for home use; Rockwell, Vegetable Gardening.

Torch of One's Own.

As Plutarch tells us: "It is well to go for a light to another man's fire, but not to tarry by it, instead of lighting a torch of one's own." A torch of one's own! That is a possession worth having, whether it be a flaming beacon on the hilltop or a tiny taper in the window. We cannot tell how far a little candle throws its beams, nor who is laying his course by its flickering light. The most that we can do—and it is also the least that we should do—is to tend the flame carefully and to keep it steady.—Brander Matthews.

It Will Grow.

Democracy can never be extended by force, as you would fling a net over a flock of birds; but give it a chance and it will grow, as a tree grows, by sending down its roots into the heart of humanity and lifting its top toward the light and spreading its arms wider and wider until all the persecuted flocks of heaven find refuge beneath its protecting shade.—Henry Van Dyke.

Origin of Widow's Caps.

Widows wore caps, says one authority, at the time of the Roman conquest of England, because they shaved their heads as a sign of mourning; as no woman would not allow sherself to be seen with a bald head, she made herself a pretty cap. Though the necessity for it has long since passed away the cap still remains. Why do we wear heels on our shoes? Because the sandal-like footgear of olden times was not adapted to horseback riding, and when the high heels were introduced heels were put on for the purpose of keeping the foot a good hold on the stirrup.

Water Finder Finds Minerals.

A reader in Dorset, Vt., writes that he is a water-finder. He uses a forked stick but can not explain what power causes it to point downward when he is passing over water. Not only can he locate water, but by placing a small piece of lead in the end of the stick he is able to find lead when under the ground, once locating a lead pipe for a farmer. He can also locate copper.—Montreal Herald.

Harvard Photo-Play House

The splendid ventilation of the Harvard theatre makes it so enjoyable for the patrons that notwithstanding the continuous warm weather, it has set a record and with the wonderfully good plays Manager Coston is putting on, the house is well filled and patronized at every performance. An afternoon or evening at the Harvard means one of unalloyed entertainment. No house in the big city offers the wonderful attractions secured by Manager Coston and produces them at his popular prices. If you are a reader of the city papers you will note that the city houses are putting the feature of down in the "sticks" are put on about the same time at the Harvard, the only difference being that you don't pay half as much to see them at our own comfortable home house.

For today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, July 22nd and 23rd, the offers that greatest of joy pictures with Jackie Coogan, "The Kid," himself, in Guy Peck's great story we all have laughed at, "Peck's Bad Boy." Remember how we read and were tickled into convulsions at the shrewd and witty doings of the "bad boy?" It is funnier in the dishes than it was in the book or in the stage version. There is no use trying to tell you of the "plot" as there is none, simply five rollicking reels of fun and merriment in which the little boy wonder, Jackie Coogan, is ably assisted by Doris May and a select cast chosen for this picture. Don't miss it and be sure to take the children. There will also be the two-part Christie comedy, "Just in Time" and Pathe News and Saturday matinee only, Eddie Polo in "Do Or Die."

On Sunday only, continuous 2 to 11:30, the Englewood favorite, Charles Ray, will be seen in one of his most likeable characters and delightful play, "Greased Lightning," in which he is ably assisted by Wanda Hawley as his country sweetheart. She could ride in Charlie's animated jinrickshaw any old time—riding in the latest new-fangled 12-cylinder speed devil.

However—Lo-and-behold, Well, he chance wasn't to do sneezed at, though. Winning Still, she loved Charlie and—well, what is a girl to do? Nother things. Wanda didn't know what kind of an engine Charlie had buried in that old wreck he called "Greased Lightning." The 12-cylinder speed devil found out, though. It's a corking fine rural romance. A pippin for thrills and fun. Try to come tonight, won't you? Also Pathe News, the two reel comedy, "Sweet Daddy," and matinee, "The Purple Riders."

Manager Coston has secured for the Harvard Monday and Tuesday, matinee and night, July 25th and 26th, the greatest sensational play of the season, the one that has been heralded and spoken of in all circles as the wonder of the season, entitled "Possession," with the international famous continental star, Pola Negri, as the star and a cast of 5,000 people in this grand epic of the screen. It is thrilling beyond words, beautiful beyond description and a harmony of all the emotions of love, laughter and tears. It contains nine reels and is the intimate story of a strong man and a willful woman, the true story of the great Dubarry and was two years in the making. It is such a wonderful picture that you must not miss it.

On Wednesday and Thursday, matinee and night, Manager Coston will present the piquant little star, Constance Binney, in a modern picturization of Channing Pollock's famous stage success, "Such a Little Queen." Miss Binney, as the little Queen who has to flee her country when a revolutionary uprising overthrows her gilded throne, is equally appealing in the gorgeous atmosphere of her court, or in the sordid surroundings of a New York flat, where, as a penniless but courageous and sensible little exile, she manages to maintain her quaint dignity even while struggling to cook her own meals, wash her own clothes, and earn her own living. It is a clean, wholesome play, well acted and you will enjoy every minute of it. Go! Also the new and really funny two part comedy, "Get Rich Quick Edgar," International News and Screen Magazine.

Vacation Loans

Man does not live by bread alone. Even while on a vacation one gets bored sometimes. What we all want is some congenial method of relaxation and something that will amuse us. The less effort required to secure the amusement, the better. For such a purpose, books are ideal. They are always right there, and always ready—the ever present entertainer—if you make use of the public library vacation loan privilege.

Vacation is the time to read those books you have always intended to read. Have you chosen your vacation books? If not, we will be glad to help you make a selection. If you are going away, books will help you attain that rest, help you forget the office at home. A good book and a shady nook! Remaining in Chicago, books of travel will take you on a long trip into the cool mountains of the east or west, or even Alaska is a pleasant country for traveling on a hot day.

A suggested list of recent books of travel:

Mills, Enos.—"Waiting in the Wilderness." Mostly sketches of the joy and reward of "waiting in the wilderness"—the opportunities to observe, unsuspected, the ways and plays of the wilderness folk, some of which are fascinatingly described.

Reed, Earl.—"Tales of a Vanishing River." History and romance perpetuating the local traditions of the Kankakee River country, now rapidly coming under the spell of the commercial spirit, which is widening its channel, draining its swamps and cutting its forests. To read the quaint old "Wether Book," to hear Waukena tell the weird legend of the silver arrow, to loaf awhile in Tipton Posey's store and listen to the reminiscences of old trappers and settlers who remember the time when the Pottawatomie Indians lived where the river swept lazily around heron-haunted bayous, is to regret the destruction of this old highway.

Macquarrie, Hector.—"Tahiti Days." A record of several delightful months spent in the South Seas, containing many interesting descriptions of native customs and the primitive life of today in that romantic region.

Franck, Harry.—"Roaming Thru the West Indies." Together with the usual character sketches of bizarre personalities, rarely poetic descriptive passages, and narratives as tense as their backgrounds are colorful, as the New York Times describes Franck's books, we have here a critical study of the United States occupancy of Haiti and San Domingo.

O'Brien, Frederick.—"Mystic Isles of the South Seas." They are Moorea and Tahiti, with their luxuriant flower gardens and palm groves, amiable natives and interesting seaports. Papeet in particular, mongrel in population, permeated with political intrigue and always dominated by the adventure of the sea. Full of genial humor and irresistible story telling.

Holtz, Mathilde. — "Glacier National Park." Personal, readable descriptions of scenery, hotels and chalets, trails, roads and passes, flower fields, lakes, glaciers, types of tourists, and the Indians of the region.

Muir, John.—"Steep Trails." Descriptions and stories of California, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Oregon and Washington, mostly reprinted from magazines. Will be enjoyed by nature lovers.

AFFECTS EXCHANGE IN INDIA

Brokers and Currency Dealers Find Business Greatly Influenced by the Marriage Season.

Among the influences which affect the currency of a country, probably none but experts in exchange would be inclined to include marrying and giving in marriage, says the Detroit Free Press.

Yet it is a fact that the Indian marriage season, which comes in May, does actually have an adverse effect on the rate of exchange in India, just as the exports of wheat and grain from India form another seasonal influence which turns exchange in favor of India.

Custom in India dictates that the bridegroom, or his father, should give gold and silver ornaments to the bride at the time of the marriage. These ornaments are called "stree-dhan," and they represent, in reality, a marriage settlement. They are the woman's absolute property, and she naturally preserves them with great care.

At the marriage time a great "tomasha," or feast, is given to the immediate relatives and followers of the two families, and this, of course, necessitates a lavish expenditure of silver. Bankers, brokers and Eastern exchange dealers have found by experience that the coming of the marriage season in India is heralded by a demand for a vast amount of silver currency, and they accordingly take steps in advance to enable them to meet it.

BURIED UNDER MINE TAILINGS

City of Douthat, in Oklahoma, Overwhelmed When Spout Deluged it With Crushed Flint

In the zinc mining district of Oklahoma, practically unknown even by the residents of the state in which it lies, is the buried city of Douthat. Surrounding it is one of the richest mining camps in the world. The Montreal, probably one of the most famous zinc mines, is in the city, as are also the properties of several of the leading zinc mining companies of the United States.

The city was not buried by a sudden flow of molten lava, as were the cities of Pompeii, but by the "tailings" of the mines of the camp, because, it is said, of differences between owners of the mines, and merchants and landowners of the town. One day the tailing spouts of one of the great mines was turned on the town, deluging it with crushed flint. The people moved their homes and business places in a mad rush to escape the downpour of dust and rock particles. Stores, cottages, barns and tents had to be moved, and now where once stood the thriving city is an immense pile of "chat" containing thousands of carloads. One street and a few dozen homes only were spared, and here the thriving business of the little town is carried on, the once prosperous business district being now buried under an immense mountain of crushed rock.

Lesson in Dietetics.

What bread needs to make it a perfect food—a perfect food is that which contains protein, carbohydrates, and fat in certain definite proportions—is something with fat in it. Hence bread "and butter," and bread "and dripping," and bread "and cheese." Pork and beans pair quite properly, because the beans supply the absent protein. When you eat beef and potatoes, or roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, the pairing makes a perfect food. The pairing of condiments is not a matter of taste alone. Cabbage is peppered because it was discovered that pepper discounted the excessive action of greenstuff on the bowels. Mustard goes with beef, but not with mutton, because mutton is much more easily digested than beef, and mustard is a first-class digester.—Montreal Herald.

Calling in Cairo.

Englishmen who do not know Cairo sometimes take houses in remote and undesirable parts of the city. In "Egypt as We Knew It," Mrs. E. L. Butcher amusingly describes how hard it is to find a person who has "gone astray." Her husband, she says, wrote to a doctor for the address of some friends whom she knew he had attended. Here is the doctor's answer: "The M—'s live in a house without a number in a street without a name next door to an Armenian butcher who, I think, has no sign, west of Abdin palace. The staircase has eighty-seven steps."

The Bible and Women Preachers.

Women preachers are taking comfort from the fact that one champion has discovered what they think is biblical recognition for them. In the prayer book version of Psalm lxviii, occurs the verse, "The Lord gave the word; great was the company of the preachers." The revised version of the Bible translates the passage thus: "The Lord giveth the word. The women that publish the tidings are a great host."

25 Pounds Mixed Family Wash
All Flat Pieces Ironed—$2.25
Cheaper Than You Can Do It at Home
Wearing Apparel Dried—No Starch—Ready to Use

Troubled with Warm Weather Washday Worries?

Laundress fail to show up?

Going out of town, and leaving Hubby behind?

Find warm weather washdays trying?

Here, then, is a sincere suggestion — investigate our family service.

You'll enthuse over it—we know you will.

At your request—a card or telephone call will do—we call for your family bundle.

First, we carefully sort everything — the light from the colored goods; the cottons from the woolens—sort everything into a number of classes.

Then we wash everything—each according to its needs—wash it by an easy, sousing, rinsing, clothes-conserving method, without rubbing or scrubbing — wash it in many baths of fresh, clean water.

And our drying, too, is good for the clothes—warm, pure air that leaves them as sweet-smelling as you could wish.

Such things as bath towels we dry fluffily; flat pieces, like tablecloths and bed linen we daintily iron for you; other things that require it, we starch.

Pieces like dresses and blouses that many housewives prefer to finish themselves, we leave for you to iron. We do fully 80 per cent of the heavy work, leaving to you but a few of the lighter details.

This Family Service is a washday help you'll welcome these warm weather days.

Telephone us today—have our driver call for your family bundle.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

POOR, FRAIL LITTLE GIRL

She could swing a six-pound dumb-bell,
She could fence and she could box;
She could row upon the river,
She could clamber 'mong the rocks;
She could golf from morn till evening,
And play tennis all day long;
But she couldn't help her mother,
'Cause she wasn't very strong.

Air castles are all well ventilated.

Casey says, "Awl min are born helpless, an' sum remain that way."

Poverty prevents a lot of willing people from getting the gout.

One of the reasons a woman likes to dine with her husband at a restaurant is that he cannot blame her for the cooking.

If Mayor Thompson's friends keep on claiming things for him, the fame of Christopher Columbus will be in danger.

People are beginning to come back from their vacations and get rested up before they resume work.

It is not ruleable to speed your car over fifty miles an hour on a populous street in Chicago, unless you are in a hurry.

Now that Jack Johnson is out of jail, the pugilist champions may begin drawing the "color line." Considering that he has a white wife, however, it may not apply to him.

The court may declare the auto identification card illegal, but I wonder if it will be legal to return our dollars?

Don't cool off by sitting in the direct draft of a fan or the pneumonia may get you.

The fussy stationmaster found a fellow villager standing with his feet on the edge of the platform, nonchalantly smoking. "Don't you know," said the ticket master, "that the Chicago express will go by there in a minute at the rate of sixty miles an hour?" The other slowly turned his head, and taking the pipe out of his mouth, replied, "You're darned feered fur your train."

That woman found guilty of killing her husband was tried by a jury "over forty." That was not so important as the fact that she was "over forty," judging from the acquittal experience of the thirty some husband killers who were freed.

Henry Ford comes forward with a proposition to pay the government $155,000,000 for the Mussel Shoals nitrate plants. Henry made some of this money making "flivvers," but most of it since he entered the newspaper field. There is a whole colony of newspaper men who have $155,000,000 to invest—they are in insane asylums.

It is urged that men follow the example of women in changing dress styles so as to wear "breeches" and stockings the same as in Washington's time. All right, I'll stand for that, but I'll be darned if I will wear my sport shirt four inches below my collar bone.

"And I suppose you and mamma never thought of me once while you were gone," said a father to his little daughter who had been away on a two weeks' visit. "Oh, yes, we did," replied the little lady. "One morning we heard a man growling about his breakfast and mamma says: 'That reminds me of home and papa.'"

Admiral Mayo was speaking about the high qualities boasted by the American jacky, and added: "He developed a positive genius for inventing reasons for securing shore leave. I call to mind Able Seaman Murphy. 'What on earth do you want shore leave for this time?' demanded the captain, as our hero made his oft-repeated request. 'It isn't your great aunt's funeral, is it?' 'Faith, no, sorr,' replied Murphy with a grin, ''tis not so bad as thot. It's—bedad, I hates to tell yez, sor.' 'Out with it,' roared the captain, now fortified for whatever new one Murphy might spring. 'I'll try and stand the shock.' 'Well, sorr, it's loik this intoirely. I had the misfortune, sorr, to have a brother born blind. Heavin be praised, sorr, but the ither day his sight was restored, an' bedad, he wants to see me, sorr.' 'Leave granted,' snapped the captain as he burst into a fit of laughter.

Englewood Divided Into New Wards

The division of the city into fifty wards instead of thirty-five will make many changes in our district. The tentative plan, which it is proposed to make public today and which will be adopted with slight changes, makes our wards the 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th and 19th. The 15th will run west from Wood st. to the city limits, and from 51st st. south to 65th st. The 16th ward will run from Wallace st. west to Wood st. and from Garfield blvd. south to 63rd st., with a jog from Loomis st. south to 66th. The 17th ward will run from Garfield blvd. south to 71st st., running from Racine ave. to State st. on the south boundary and at 63rd st. narrowing to Wallace st. and running east to South Park ave., with jogs at Marquette rd. from 66th to 71st st. and at 60th st. to State. The 18th will run from Halsted west to Cicero, between 63rd and 79th sts., with some zig-zag jogs at Western ave., where it runs from 67th to 87th and from Western to Loomis from 68th to 82nd sts. The 19th ward will run from 71st st. south to 123rd. State st. is the east boundary to 84th st., then west to Stewart and south to 103rd, and then west to Halsted, and then west to California ave. with jogs at 119th and 115th sts. There will be two and possibly three colored wards in the city, and only one alderman for each ward, which will make some radical political changes.

Evanston's Remarkable Nerve

A rule has been enforced that Chicago people may not use the Main st. beach and park in Evanston. They claim that Chicago hoodlums of both sexes make their company undesirable. Why not forbid the objectionable hoodlums, whether from Chicago or Oshkosh, but not forbid all Chicagoans the use of their stingy little park and "ole swimmin' hole"? Evanston or any of the other many suburban towns certainly must have well developed nerve to exclude Chicagoans from their public places, after earning their money in Chicago and taking advantage of the thousand and one public institutions of our great city. Our North Shore drive, Lincoln Park and all of that section of the city is crowded with Evanstonians, and no one says them "nay," yet they come forward with such a "hick town" rule, and even try to justify it. Shame on you, Evanston.

Divine Healing Meetings

Big divine healing meetings are held every evening in the Englewood high school auditorium, 62nd st. and Stewart ave., which are interdenominational and free to all. They are conducted by Dr. D. N. McInturff of Spokane, Wash. Many have been miraculously healed like in Bible days under Dr. McInturff's ministry. No case is too hard to be healed. Those whom medical doctors have given up as hopeless are invited to come. If unable to walk, have someone bring you on a cot. No charges. Come and see the sick healed and be convinced that Jesus is still the Great Physician.

Committee.

Uniform Police in Khaki in Summer

The police of Washington, D. C., shed their heavy blue uniforms in the summer and appear in natty khaki soldier clothes, excepting the puttees. They are cool and comfortable and they are even allowed to wear their blouses open, which shows a light colored khaki shirt. It is a rank injustice to compel our police force to wear the heavy regulation cloth uniforms and even insist upon the blouses being buttoned to the chin. Have a heart, Mr. Chief, and give the boys a chance!

Englewood Pageant of Progress Parade

The last and biggest of all the sub-center pageant parades will be held in Englewood on the evening of July 29th.

The parade will pass a reviewing stand located on Halsted St. From this stand a committee will judge the floats for prizes, and select ten to appear in the main pageant parade in the loop, to represent Englewood.

No vehicles will be allowed to enter this parade unless they are decorated. Trucks newly painted will be considered decorated. Horse drawn vehicles must include decorating of horses as well as vehicle.

All entries must be in the committee's hands not later than Thursday, July 21st, in order that we may advise you in plenty of time, your place in line and location at which you must have your entry on the eve of the parade.

Parade will start at 7 p. m. sharp.

The Times Gets Results

The Englewood Times, which goes into the homes of thousands of the most substantial people of this community, gets results for its advertisers because of this fact.

The great majority of the Englewood people are thrifty and they wish to patronize the progressive merchants in this section of the city. Any advertisement in any Englewood paper is bound, sooner or later, to attract attention. Here in Englewood we are not especially confronted with the problem of keeping people from taking time and money to go to the loop. Everyone should know that the man or woman who buys in the loop must help to pay the tremendous overhead expenses which the downtown dealers have to meet.

Steadily and surely we are increasing the circulation of the Times and as this paper continues to grow the advertiser can know that he will secure better and better results.

Held Up McCrea Stores

Among the numerous hold-ups and robberies of last week was that of our genial friend and neighbor, Mr. Jno. C. McCrea, who runs a chain of stores in Englewood. Saturday night about 10:30 two armed youths entered the 69th and Parnell ave. store and backed Mr. McCrea and his four assistants into the icebox while they made their escape in a waiting auto, containing two confederates, with the cash box. This is the third visit of the bandits to the McCrea stores, the ones at 6001 State st. and 7402 Vincennes ave. having been broken into the week previous.

Reminiscences of "Old Timers"

The chairman of the committee preparing the material for the history of Englewood is in receipt of many very interesting letters and articles bearing on the subject. Tales and incidents of the past; recollections of old inhabitants, and locations, all essentially historical, are coming in and when the time comes for preparing the work, they will be of valuable assistance to us. While thanking those who have sent us in such facts as they have at hand, we desire to ask others to follow their example. We don't care how it is written, send it to us, and we will put it in shape for publication, but want names and dates to be as nearly right as possible. All such articles will be welcomed by the chairman, Gerald E. Sullivan, 540 W. 63rd St., Chicago.

First Lieut. Hefferan, A. E. F., Buried Monday

The body of First Lieut. Thomas E. M. Hefferan, first lieutenant in Co. M, 126th infantry, who was killed in action in the Soissons-Rheims sector August 1st, 1918, was brought home this week and his funeral occurred from St. Bernard's church Monday morning and the remains were buried at Mt. Olivet with full military honors. Lieut. Hefferan, or "Tommy," as he was familiarly known by his Englewood friends, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Hefferan of 6621 Harvard ave. He was educated in Englewood and graduated from the University of Wisconsin. He sailed for France in January, 1918. He was a bright student, a manly young man, and his heroic death endears his memory to us all. R. I. P.

Chicago City Band Concert

The Chicago City Band, of which William Weil is conductor, will give an open air concert at the Gresham Parkway at 87th st., the evening of Friday, Aug. 19th, at 8 o'clock. The program will be of popular and classical music and everyone is cordially invited. Plenty of room for parking autos. This is a 32nd ward concert and is given at the solicitation of Mrs. Albert J. Fisher, Mr. Weil choosing the location.

Thanking Mrs. McKown

The Third Congressional District American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic wish to publicly express their thanks to the family of Mr. John McKown, 409 Normal pkwy., for the kind courtesies extended to their members and guests on July 4th when they held their all-American demonstration in Normal High School campus.
